Hello,

If you are receiving this email, you are currently scheduled and enrolled in SOC 101 online through BTC for the fall semester. With the recent SB 150 law, we will not be able to have students enrolled in SOC 101 any longer. Therefore, please look at the link below of Dual Credit offerings (minus PSY 110) and let me know of another course you would like to take in place of SOC 101. For the course you choose, you will also have to meet the prerequisites for the course, which is also on the document below. Please let me know no later than this Thursday, August 10th which course you would like to take instead.

TRENDLINE

Family and Community Involvement in K-12

Family engagement and community involvement are critical as school districts contend with misinformation and growing misunderstandings. Learn how districts are addressing these issues in this Trendline.

3 key best practices from the White House K-12 cybersecurity summit

School leaders must take prevention seriously and know who to call when an attack happens, government officials and educators said.

Charter school funding averages 30% less than traditional public schools

Charter schools in major cities received, on average, $7,147 less per pupil during the 2019-20 school year, a new study finds.

More bathroom lawsuits are being ruled in favor of transgender students

The Supreme Court is expected to eventually take up the issue as lawsuits over access to restrooms and other communal facilities continue.
